FOCUSED BUT DIVERSE
NETWORKING

Whatever your career goals are, there's a particular role that is most relevant for you to network with.

Typically this is people in your own role: a software engineer benefits most from networking with fellow software engineers. They will be able to tell you who's hiring, who's growing, and which companies have the best cultures.
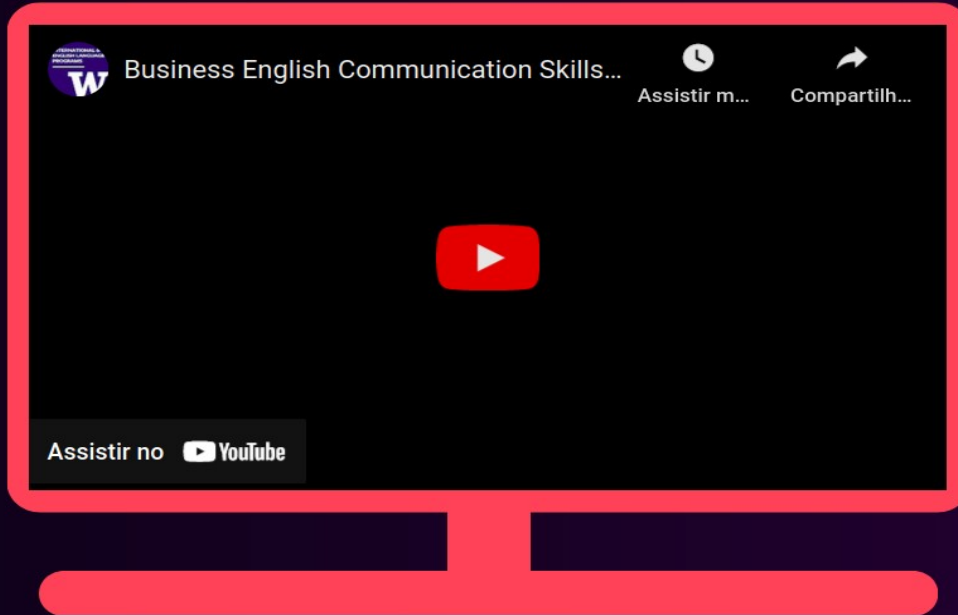

On the other hand, you might need help from all kinds of people. What happens when you want to shift careers? Or you need advice because you don't understand things well outside of your specialty? You'll value this more diverse network then.

Review the pronunciation of the highlighted words.
Find the meaning of the highlighted words.
